

IDI Annual Conference Programme 13th October 2023, Clayton Hotel, Silversprings, Cork

“There’s No Time to Waste – Green is the Gold Standard”

|                         |                                                                                                 |                                              |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| 07:30-08:30             | Registration, Exhibition Viewing, Tea &amp; Coffee                                       |                                              |
| 08:30-08:45             | Official Opening of the Trade Exhibition                                                        | Ken O Flynn - Deputy Lord Mayor of Cork City |
| 08:45-08:50             | Official opening of conference 2023                                                             | Ms Tracey Scott IDI Chairperson              |
| Session 1 | Moderator: Andrew Smith                                                           |                                              |
| 08:50-09:20             | How focus on productivity can yield environmental benefits                                      | Mr Ben Siegmund                              |
| 09:20-09:50             | Rationalisation of Surgical Trays                                                               | Mr Darren Mills                              |
| 09:50-10:20             | New technologies that revolutionize endoscope reprocessing                                      | Ms Mihaela CirisanSwords Medical         |
| 10:20-10:30             | Q&A                                                                                             |                                              |
| 10:30-11:30             | Exhibition Viewing, Tea &amp; Coffee                                                     |                                              |
| Session 2 | Moderator: Tony Mc Loughlin                                                       |                                              |
| 11:30-12:00             | Process Challenging Devices                                                                     | Mr Hugh O Connor                             |
| 12:00-12:40             | Biological Indicators : A Quality Assurance tool in the Decontamination of Clinical Instruments | Dr Gerard Colleran                           |
| 12:40-13:10             | Benefits of CPD Training                                                                        | Ms Beverley MittonIsopharm               |
| 13:10-13:20             | Q&A                                                                                             |                                              |
| 13:20-15:00             | Lunch &amp; Exhibition Viewing                                                           |                                              |
| Session 3 | Moderator: Niamh O Callaghan                                                      |                                              |
| 15:00-15:45             | Climate Change & Sustainability                                                                 | Dr Cathy Burke                               |
| 15:45-16:15             | Can we win the fight with Healthcare Associated Infections?                                     | Mr Olegs Tucs                                |
| 16:15-16:35             | Assessment of Non-Approved Pre-Saturated Chemical Wipe Usage within Ultrasound                  | Mr Sean Gillivan                             |
| 16:35-16:55             | Enhanced reprocessing methods for Phaco hand pieces to prevent HCAI                             | Ms Ashlene Ayres                             |
| 17:00                   | End of Conference                                                                               |                                              |